Swimming and Nakunbalook Environmental and Cultural Education

Last Wednesday after swimming our students attended a session at the Sale Botanical Gardens with Sharon Ray from the Nakunbalook Environmental and Cultural Education Centre.

While at the park we all set to work seeing what we could notice, the different birds, the types of trees, the art and the wildlife that was all around us. It was a lovely afternoon and our students were very engaged with the activity.

We look forward to another fun and engaging afternoon on
